
For Coin & Blood Compatibility License (FC&BCL) 1.0, January 2021

The For Coin & Blood Compatibility License (FC&BCL) is a royalty-free nonexclusive agreement between Gallant Knight Games and third parties (individuals or organizations) to allow limited use of the For Coin & Blood™ trademark and use of the FC&BCL Logo visual mark (FC&BCL Logo) to indicate that third party products are compatible with the For Coin & Blood: Second Edition roleplaying game, published by Gallant Knight Games.

A non-transferable, non-sublicensable, non-exclusive, royalty-free license to use the FC&BCL Logo on products is granted to publishers (hereafter referred to in this document as "You") as long as the requirements below are met:

Requirements:

1. No product can include “For Coin & Blood” or “For Coin & Blood: Second Edition” in the title.

2. You must not use any of the For Coin & Blood product line trade dress for your products, or imply that your product is an official For Coin & Blood product release.

3. The FC&BCL Logo may only be used with materials published under the Open Gaming License (OGL) and you must comply with the terms of the OGL to use the FC&BCL Logo. The FC&BCL Logo is Product Identity, and cannot be used in any way that the OGL prohibits. You still retain all your own rights to your Product Identity under the OGL.

4. The FC&BCL Logo may be placed prominently on exterior covers of print and electronic product covers, as well as on title/credit interior pages. For print or electronic products without covers, it must be placed on the first or last page of the product.

5. The FC&BCL Logo may be placed at any size desired, but must retain the same dimensions as the standard version, and must remain legible. The FC&BCL Logo cannot be colorized or made transparent.

6. Any use of the FC&BCL Logo must include the following text either in a credits/copyright section and/or in the same viewable area as the use of the FC&BCL Logo:

“For Coin & Blood: Second Edition™ is a trademark of Gallant Knight Games”. If mentioning Gallant Knight Games as a precursor to this then the following text must also be included: “Gallant Knight Games and the Gallant Knight Games logo are trademarks of Gallant Knight Games.”

The text should close with “Used with permission under license.”

7. You agree not to use the FC&BCL Logo in conjunction with illegal activities.

8. You agree to indemnify Gallant Knight Games against any claims made against products produced through your licensed use of the FC&BCL Logo.

9. You agree to allow Gallant Knight Games to use the title of your products and/or contributor names from your products communications regarding usage of the FC&BCL.

10. This license may be updated at any time. You agree to abide by the terms of the updated license, and will be given a window of opportunity to comply with any updated terms.

Complying with the above requirements allows the following:

1. You do not need explicit permission from Gallant Knight Games to use the FC&BCL Compatibility Logo.

2. You may indicate compatibility of your product with the For Coin & Blood: Second Edition™ roleplaying game.

3. The FC&BCL Logo may be used royalty-free on print and electronic products, as well as websites and advertising relating to products that fulfill the terms of this license while in compliance.

4. You may state that your product is “compatible with” any of the following: “For Coin & Blood: Second Edition”, “FC&B”, “FC&B RPG”, or “the For Coin & Blood: Second Edition RPG”.

Failure to adhere to the terms of this license may result in termination of the license and the ability to use the FC&BCL Logo on one or more products for individuals or organizations. If this occurs, sale of any affected products must cease immediately, and all advertising and promotional use of the FC&BCL Logo must stop. Destruction of existing and unsold physical inventory may be required. You must immediately suspend sale of all products using the FC&BCL Logo, as well as suspend all advertising and promotional use of the FC&BCL Logo, until your products no longer include the FC&BCL Logo.

The FC&BCL can be revoked or terminated for any reason by Gallant Knight Games. If this occurs, all products using the FC&BCL Logo must remove it from use within 6 months of notice.
